Forecast For Northern Ireland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Tuesday 28 Sep 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Becoming mainly dry with clear or sunny spells.

This Evening and Tonight:
Clear spells and showers, the showers becoming increasingly confined to northern and western counties this evening then becoming lighter and fewer overnight. Occasionally fresh westerly or northwesterly winds. Minimum temperature 6 deg C (43 deg F).

Wednesday:
A few early showers for northern coasts but most places dry with some good spells of sunshine. Cloud and outbreaks of rain spread east in evening, with strengthening southerly winds. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
An unsettled end to the week with showers or longer spells of occasionally heavy rain and occasionally strong, mainly southwesterly winds.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.